

Equality Screening our decisions and policies

As a public authority we are legally required to consider the equality implications of all our policies and decisions while we are developing them to inform our decision making. To help us do this and to provide evidence, you must complete an equality screening template.

Training is available on screening. Please ask BSO Equality Unit (equality.unit@hscni.net) about this if you would like to avail of it